The image shows a screenshot of a web browser window titled "Add Note - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The browser's address bar and menu bar are visible at the top. The main content area contains a form with the following elements:

- A label "Add comment." positioned above two input fields.
- An input field labeled "- Name.".
- An input field labeled "- Email.".
- A large, empty text area for comments, with a vertical scrollbar on its right side.
- A button labeled "Submit Query" at the bottom right of the form.
